W. W. DIMOND'S

High priced articles have been sold here for years and people have complained, because of the high rate of living in Honolulu. We have tried to alter this, we have bought goods direct from the manufacturers and sell them for a half or a quarter off what you have paid before. The public likes the idea and so do we. The profits to us are satisfactory, probably as the other fellow makes, the difference is on the buying—our buying and you get the benefit of it.

You never saw a decent onyx top table in Honolulu that you could buy for under fifteen dollars. We sell them at six fifty and enable a class of people who could not afford to own them before, to put them among their pretty things in the parlor.

It's the same with crockery. Just look at our forty piece decorated tea sets (we can't tell you the price because you would think we were fooling). You can have a little high tea with one of these sets and be as well as your neighbor. There's nothing cheap about them, except the price; the quality is alright and no one will find fault with them. Its having these good quality goods at low prices that presents our objecting to the government turning tradesmen and selling off their stock of glassware and crockery.

We would enjoy your remarks on looking at our stock of lamps. The wrought iron patterns are the prettiest we have ever seen. You know what a rough iron lamp is—never gets old looking and will never be out of style. We furnish the shades, paper ones, that set them off to perfection. The price? Well, too small to mention.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co.,
Gentlemen:—I was very much run down, had no appetite at all, was very nervous, had no sleep night or day: to sum it all up, I WAS PERFECTLY WRETCHED. But thanks to Paine's Celery Compound I can now eat and sleep, and work just as well as I could before I was taken sick. When I commenced taking the Compound I weighed 136 pounds; I now weigh 155 pounds and do all the work for my family of five. I have recommended the Compound to three families already and they are very much pleased with it. I am now taking my fifth bottle, and would RECOMMEND IT TO ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING WITH STOMACH TROUBLE OR NERVOUS TROUBLE.
Yours respectfully,
